Manor Livingston 20. July 1781

My dear Sir

I expected to have had a line from you concerning our conversation when last at Wethersfield respecting forage &c. from our former acquaintance was in hopes if any flour or any Articles was to be purchased this way under your direction to have had the pleasure of providing a part of it - I am willing to purchase any quantity of flour or short forage upon as good terms as any person whatever this way - If any is wanted during the coming Winter or Fall, I will provide for 1/3. Hard money, 1/3 Bills, and the other in Goods such as may be wanted at first cost where the Goods are layed in, and if the Articles are to be transported will send them on to such places as directed, if supplyed with Money to pay the same. I'll either purchase at an agreed price for each Article, or on commission just as you like —

I think flour may be bought at 20/ ℔ and perhaps under this Curry: Beg if any thing is to be done this way, to receive your Directions — I am Dear Sir Your very Humb: Servt ——

Peter R. Livingston

Please to Acquaint me what you give for flour, and the different kind of forage to be had in this State and what pay —
